ZIONISTS DIGGING U.S. GRAVE

U. S. will emerge a defeated and degraded nation in a Middle East War fighting as ally of Zionists to help thieves hold onto Palestine plunder

By BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN
Founder 1950, Christian Anti-defamation League

(PART I)

Four Presidents of the United States pledged the armed forces of the United States to Zionist supporters, to fight in Palestine as an ally of Zionist usurpers in illegal possession of eighty percent (80%) of Palestine since 1948, in effect and in fact to fight as the ally of Zionists in Palestine to help Zionist thieves hold onto their Palestine plunder, treason to our tradition.

Four Presidents of the United States jeopardized the lives of countless Christians in the armed forces of the United States, pledging the armed forces of the United States to fight in Palestine to do the dirty work there for Zionists throughout the world, solely as a political pay-off to Zionist supporters in the United States for expensive and extensive political support in their four successful election campaigns.

Solely as a political pay-off to Zionist supporters, for expensive and extensive Zionist support in successful election campaigns, four Presidents of the United States pledged the armed forces of the United States to Zionist supporters to fight in Palestine, wearing uniforms of the armed forces of the United States, and under the flag of the United States, in an unjust war the United States cannot conceivably win, and from which the United States must emerge as a defeated and degraded nation, in their considered judgment by the most eminently qualified authorities upon this subject, holding that view based upon fact.

Each day the news from the Middle East supplies more and more evidence of the certainty of an imminent outbreak of hostilities in Palestine, to liberate the eighty percent (80%) of Palestine in the illegal possession of Zionist usurpers since 1948. Palestine's 1,350,000 exiled Christians and Moslems, uprooted from their homes and expelled from their ancestral homeland, without provocation or justification, with only the clothes on their backs, in the 1948 armed uprising by 650,000 Zionist usurpers, have sufficient reason today for taking whatever measures they consider necessary, under the circumstances, to regain possession of their homes, and to forever retain possession peacefully of their ancestral homeland, without fearing for their future.

It is reasonable to anticipate that Palestine's 1,350,000 exiled Christians and Moslems may be compelled, by the force of circumstances in 1965, to resort to the same measures in 1965, to regain possession of their homes and peacefully retain possession of their ancestral homeland, to which transplanted Zionist usurpers resorted in 1948, to usurp possession of eighty percent (80%) of Palestine, which Zionists occupy.

of Representatives in Washington, begging them not to drag Christians in the armed forces of the United States away from their mothers and fathers, away from their young wives and little children, away from their colleges and their jobs, to fight in Palestine to help Zionist thieves hold onto their Palestine plunder, doing the dirty work in Palestine for Zionists throughout the world, Christian victims of a political pay-off as consideration for expensive and extensive Zionist support in successful election campaigns held in the United States.

The reason Great Britain transplanted 600,000 Zionists from eastern Europe into Palestine between 1920 and 1948, behind a shield of 200,000 British troops stationed by Great Britain in Palestine in 1920 for that purpose, will also explain the reason why the United States was railroaded by Zionists into World War I in 1917 as Great Britain's ally to rescue Great Britain from defeat by Germany with United States help.

The World Zionist Organization concluded their notorious 1916 London Agreement with the British War Cabinet in the Fall of 1916 in London. Under that notorious 1916 London Agreement, Great Britain unconditionally agreed to turn over Palestine to Zionists, for their future Zionist sovereign state, after the defeat of Germany by Great Britain, as Great Britain's compensation to Zionists for successfully putting Zionist pressure upon the United States, railroading the United States into World War I as Great Britain's new ally!

The three principal officers of the World Zionist Organization, who in 1916 proposed the notorious 1916 London Agreement to the British War Cabinet, were Dr. Chaim Weizmann, first head of the future Zionist "sovereign state" when so "proclaimed" in 1948, Mr. Nahum Sokolov and Mr. Samuel Landman, three eastern European Zionist so-called Jews of Khazar historic ancestry.

Samuel Landman, at that time Secretary of the World Zionist Organization, with a first-hand knowledge of all the facts, wrote about the negotiations for their notorious 1916 London Agreement. In the one published in the New Zionist Publication of London in 1933, under the title "Great Britain, the Jews and Palestine," Samuel Landman stated frankly, among many other amazing events never before made public:

"DURING THE CRITICAL DAYS OF 1916 . . . JEWRY AS A WHOLE WAS AGAINST THE CZARIST REGIME AND HAD HOPES THAT GERMANY IF VICTORIOUS WOULD IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES GIVE THEM PALESTINE . . . ATTEMPTS TO BRING AMERICA INTO THE WAR ON THE SIDE OF THE ALLIES BY INFLUENCING INFLUENTIAL JEWISH OPINION WERE MADE AND HAD FAILED . . . MR. JAMES A. MALCOM SPONTANEOUSLY TOOK THE INITIATIVE TO CONVINCE FIRST OF ALL SIR MARK SYKES, UNDER SECRETARY TO THE WAR CABINET . . . THAT THE BEST AND PERHAPS THE ONLY WAY, WHICH PROVED SO TO BE, TO INDUCE THE AMERICAN PRESIDENT TO COME INTO THE WAR WAS TO SECURE THE COOPERATION OF ZIONIST JEWS BY PROMISING THEM PALESTINE AND THUS ENLIST AND MOBILIZE THE HITHERTO UNSUSPECTEDLY POWERFUL FORCES OF ZIONIST JEWS IN AMERICA AND ELSEWHERE IN FAVOR OF THE ALLIES ON A QUID PRO QUO CONTRACT BASIS . . . THUS AS WILL BE SEEN, THE ZIONISTS HAVING CARRIED OUT THEIR PART AND GREATLY HELPED TO BRING AMERICA IN, THE BALFOUR DECLARATION OF 1917 WAS BUT THE PUBLIC CONFIRMATION OF THE NECESSARILY SECRET 'GENTLEMEN'S' AGREEMENT OF 1916 . . . AND NOT MERELY A VOLUNTARY ALTRUISTIC AND ROMANTIC GESTURE ON THE PART OF GREAT BRITAIN . . ."

It is now an accepted fact at the highest government levels throughout the world, that the notorious 1916 London Agreement was solely responsible for the entry of the United States into World War I as Great Britain's ally. The alibi was not Germany's sinking of the Lusitania, two years before United States declared war against Germany. The Lusitania sinking by Germany in February 1915 was justified under international law by the facts. German submarine warfare in the Atlantic was being conducted by Germany in all respects under the provisions of the 1907 Hague Convention for the conduct of submarine warfare.

Christians in the United States were kept in ignorance of that notorious 1916 London Agreement by the tight control exercised by Zionists over media for mass-communication in the United States. In spite of that fact, a sufficient number of authentic documents have come to the attention of the Christian public in the United States recently, establishing the existence of notorious 1916 London Agreement beyond all question of any doubt. That cat is now out of the bag for the first time in the United States. The facts remain a secret no longer.

The Zionist leaders who negotiated the notorious 1916 London Agreement, wrote many accounts confessing their responsibility for railroading the United States into World War I in 1917, as the price Zionists paid for Palestine. Christians in the United States have evidently been too occupied, making money and having fun, to find time to peruse those revealing accounts, which leave nothing to the reader's imagination.

The infamous so-called Balfour Declaration corroborated existence of the notorious 1916 London Agreement, but for many years Zionists hawked around the world their big lie, Great Britain gave the infamous so-called Balfour Declaration as Great Britain's reward to Zionists, for Chaim Weizmann's discovery how to manufacture a better acetone, an important ingredient used in the manufacture of high explosives in World War I. But Zionists discarded that fable as Christians dug up the truth about the notorious 1916 London Agreement, undeniably the reason for the infamous so-called Balfour Declaration.

Based upon their history, Zionists have no basis for asserting a legitimate claim to Palestine as their "ancient homeland," nor for any reason. Eastern European Zionist so-called Jews of Khazar historic ancestry, have neither a historic, nor ethnic nor a spiritual identification with the Holy Land in Bible history, or since Bible history times, to justify Zionist usurpation of eighty percent (80%) of Palestine from Palestine's Christians and Moslems, the lineal descendants of Palestine's indigenous population for over seventeen hundred (1700) years.

Eastern European Zionist so-called Jews of Khazar historic ancestry never had an ancestor who set a foot in the Holy Land in all Bible history. The so-called Zionist movement was organized in 1898, strictly a political movement, by eastern European so-called Jews, motivated by their frequent differences with Czarist regimes in Russia.

The Zionist movement was planned to win Christian support for "repatriation" of "God's chosen people" to their "Promised Land," their "ancient homeland," as their future Zionist sovereign state in Palestine. Eastern European Zionist so-called Jews of Khazar historic ancestry aimed to resurrect their ancient Khazar kingdom, of necessity not again in Russia, this time in Palestine.

The Jewish Encyclopedia confirms this undeniable historic fact, eastern European Zionist so-called Jews of Khazar ancestry, found today in all countries throughout the world, more than five million (5,000,000) in the United States alone, are descendants of an ancient Asiatic Mongoloid tribal nation of Turco-Finn ethnic origin, which invaded eastern Europe about the 1st century B.C. where these Khazars became converts from their pagan phallic worship, to their alleged religious faith, actually then as today Talmudism, in the 8th century A.D.

Space here will permit only a brief quotation from Volume IV, pages 1-5, in the Jewish Encyclopedia, establishing the historic, ethnic and spiritual background of eastern European Zionist so-called Jews of Khazar historic ancestry throughout the world, heirs today to Khazar traditions:

"KHAZARS: A PEOPLE OF TURKISH ORIGIN WHOSE LIFE AND HISTORY ARE INTERWOVEN WITH THE VERY BEGINNING OF THE HISTORY OF THE JEW OF RUSSIA... DRIVEN ON BY THE NOMADIC TRIBES OF THE STEPPES AND BY THEIR OWN DESIRE FOR PLUNDER AND REVENGE... IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE SIXTH CENTURY THE KHAZARS MOVED WESTWARD... THE KINGDOM OF THE KHAZARS WAS FIRMLY ESTABLISHED IN MOST OF SOUTH RUSSIA LONG BEFORE THE FOUNDATION OF THE RUSSIAN MONARCHY BY THE VARANGIANS (855)... AT THIS TIME THE KINGDOM OF THE KHAZARS STOOD AT THE HEIGHT OF ITS POWER AND WAS CONSTANTLY AT WAR... AT THE END OF THE EIGHTH CENTURY... THE KING OF THE KHAZARS AND HIS GRANDEES, TOGETHER WITH A LARGE NUMBER OF HEATHEN PEOPLE, EMBRACED THE JEWISH RELIGION... ABOUT THE NINTH CENTURY IT APPEARS AS IF ALL THE KHAZARS WERE JEWS AND THAT THEY HAD BEEN CONVERTED TO JUDAISM ONLY A SHORT TIME BEFORE... THE PEOPLE WERE INSTRUCTED IN THE BIBLE, THE MISHNA AND THE TALMUD... THE RUSSIAN VARANGIANS ESTABLISHED THEMSELVES AT KIEV... AFTER A HARD FIGHT THE RUSSIANS CONQUERED THE KHAZARS... MANY EMIGRATED TO SPAIN... SOME WENT TO HUNGARY... BUT THE GREAT MASS OF THE PEOPLE REMAINED IN THEIR NATIVE COUNTRY..."

The greatest authority on the origin of the Khazars, also the emergence of their Khazar kingdom as the greatest power in Europe, and on the disappearance of the Khazar kingdom from European history, is the venerated Professor H. Graetz, himself an eastern European so-called Jew of Khazar historic ancestry. In Professor Graetz's classic work on the subject, "History of the Jews," on page 141, Professor Graetz explodes the hoax that eastern European so-called Jews of Khazar historic ancestry, found throughout the world, ever were or now are "God's chosen people." Only very few sentences can be quoted here at this time owing to the limited space available:

"THE KHAZARS PROFESSED A COARSE RELIGION WHICH WAS COMBINED WITH SENSUALITY AND LEWDNESS... AFTER OBADIA CAME A LONG SERIES OF JEWISH RULERS, FOR ACCORDING TO A FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF THE STATE ONLY JEWISH RULERS WERE PERMITTED TO ASCEND THE THRONE... FOR SOME TIME THE JEWS OF OTHER COUNTRIES HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE CONVERSION OF THIS POWERFUL KINGDOM TO JUDAISM, AND WHEN AT LAST A VAGUE RUMOR TO THIS EFFECT REACHED THEM, THEY WERE OF THE OPINION THAT KHAZARIA WAS PEOPLED BY THE REMNANT OF THE FORMER TEN TRIBES."

Palestine was recognized in 1919 as an autonomous independent sovereign state by all the nations of the world assembled in Paris for the Versailles Peace Conference. At that time and for the very same purpose, recognition was then extended to Syria, the Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, the Kingdom of Yemen and Trans-Jordan as autonomous independent sovereign states. All of these, with the single exception of Palestine, have continued their existence since 1919 as autonomous independent sovereign states, and they are all now members of United Nations, with the exception of Palestine.

The "delegation" of Zionists to the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris, called the fact to Great Britain's attention, that Zionists in the United States had performed their obligation under the notorious 1916 London Agreement, and Zionists demanded Great Britain to perform their reciprocal obligation. The Zionist "delegation" to the Versailles Peace Conference kept driving

Great Britain to immediately take what steps were then necessary to turn over Palestine to Zionists for their future Zionist sovereign state, avoiding double-crossing.

The Zionist "delegation" to the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919 demanded that Great Britain turn over Palestine to them then and there, as Great Britain unconditionally agreed to do under their notorious 1916 London Agreement.

The Germans learned for the first time of the existence of the notorious 1916 London Agreement at the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919. The Germans learned there in 1919 for the first time why Germany's 1916 victory over Great Britain was suddenly transformed into Germany's 1918 ignominious defeat by the unexpected entry of United States into World War I, Great Britain's new ally, on April 6, 1917.

At the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919, the Ottoman Empire was treated as a defeated ally in World War I of a defeated Germany. Great Britain was determined to slice the Middle East into seven small and weak autonomous independent sovereign states. Great Britain forced upon the Middle East the historic British foreign policy to try to "divide and rule."

The Zionist "delegation" to the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919 claimed one hundred and seventeen (117) Zionist "delegates," from countries throughout the world. The Zionist "delegation" to the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919 was largest of all "delegations" there. Bernard M. Baruch headed the Zionist "delegation," and served with distinction, representing Zionists of the United States.

Bernard Baruch was President Woodrow Wilson's most trusted and his most constant counselor. Bernard Baruch master-minded the 1912 National Democratic Committee, electing Woodrow Wilson the President of the United States to his amazement, and the nation's, for which President Wilson always gave Bernard Baruch the full credit.

The Zionists "delegation" to the Versailles Peace Conference in Paris in 1919 dragged in the infamous so-called Balfour Declaration, to amplify Zionists claim to Palestine under the 1916 London Agreement. That infamous so-called Balfour Declaration was a letter addressed to Lord Rothschild in London by Arthur Balfour in his official capacity as Great Britain's Minister for Foreign Affairs, and was written under the following questionable circumstances, forever to Great Britain's shame.

After the entry of the United States into World War I as Great Britain's ally, on April 6, 1917, Zionist leaders in London and Washington had reason to suspect Great Britain might not honor Great Britain's reciprocal obligation, to hand over Palestine to Zionists for their future sovereign state, after the termination of World War I, with good reason to suspect them.

In 1915 Great Britain had unconditionally pledged liberation to the Middle East, totally from the Ottoman Empire, after termination of World War I, as consideration for Middle East assistance in the defense of the Suez Canal in 1915, threatened at that time by advancing Turkish forces. Zionist leaders in London and Washington were informed in 1915 of Great Britain's 1915 pledge, total independence for the Middle East, a year before the Zionists ever proposed their notorious 1916 London Agreement, to the British War Cabinet.

Zionist leaders in London and Washington no longer trusted Great Britain to hand over Palestine to them after the termination of World War I, for their future Zionist sovereign state, without complications arising from Great Britain's 1915 pledge, to recognize Middle East independence from the Ottoman Empire, after the termination of World War I. But complications arose.

After the entry of the United States into World War I as Great Britain's ally on April 6, 1917, Zionist leaders in London and Washington obtained their communication from Great Britain, acknowledging Great Britain's reciprocal obligation to Zionists, couched in cryptic language. The cryptic language was to conceal, for good reason, the reciprocal British and Zionist obligations under the notorious 1916 London Agreement. The reciprocal British and Zionist obligations, under the notorious 1916 London Agreement, was a very well kept secret from the Christian public in both Great Britain and the United States.

Zionist leaders in London and Washington agreed it was important to couch the communication obtained from Great Britain in cryptic language, because Zionist leaders planned to give the communication world-wide publicity for propaganda purposes at a future time. The cryptic language of the communication would serve to conceal from Christians the reciprocal British and Zionist obligations under the notorious 1916 London Agreement, then still a secret.

The infamous so-called Balfour Declaration was accordingly couched in cryptic language, that concealed from Christians, the fact that Great Britain was obligated to turn over Palestine to Zionists for their future Zionist sovereign state, as Great Britain's compensation to Zionists for rail-roading United States into World War I, as Great Britain's ally to defeat Germany.

Six known drafts of that cryptic communication were exchanged between Zionist leaders in London and Washington, between April 6, 1917, the date the United States declared war against Germany, and November 2, 1917, before cryptic language for the communication was finally agreed upon by Zionist leaders. The cryptic language for their November 2, 1917 draft adequately concealed from Christians the objective of the notorious 1916 London Agreement, still keeping the terms secret.

A copy of the acceptable communication was forwarded from Washington to London, to Arthur Balfour, Great Britain's Minister for Foreign Affairs, with instructions to transcribe the draft onto the official stationery of Great Britain's Foreign Office, and to deliver an executed copy to Lord Rothschild in London, the same Lord Rothschild who assisted in preparing the cryptic communication, Zionist No. 1 master-mind.

The cryptic communication referred to as the infamous Balfour Declaration received that name only from the fact that Arthur Balfour affixed his signature to the letter delivered to Lord Rothschild. By any stretch of the imagination, that cryptic communication was not in any sense a "declaration" by Arthur Balfour. Zionist leaders wanted the signature of Arthur Balfour affixed to that letter as Great Britain's Minister for Foreign Affairs, to lend prestige to that cryptic communication as Zionist propaganda, when the time arrived to use that communication as propaganda.

The infamous so-called Balfour Declaration appears below exactly as written:

Foreign Office
November 2, 1917.

Dear Lord Rothschild,

I have much pleasure in conveying to you on behalf of His Majesty's Government the following declaration of sympathy with the Jewish Zionist aspirations, which has been submitted to and approved by the Cabinet.

His Majesty's Government view with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement of this object, IT BEING CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD THAT NOTHING SHALL BE DONE WHICH MAY PREJUDICE THE CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS RIGHTS OF EXISTING NON-JEWISH COMMUNITIES IN PALESTINE or the rights or political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country.

I will be happy if you would bring this Declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur James Balfour

In this day and age, it seems impossible that any sane persons would interpret that infamous so-called Balfour Declaration as a "bill of sale" for Palestine, from Great Britain to Zionists. Great Britain could not honorably promise something which Great Britain did not own, as a consideration in exchange for something of value. In all history from the beginning of time, Great Britain never owned a square inch of Palestine that Great Britain could promise as Great Britain promised Palestine to Zionists, a crime if done by individuals.

In 1920 the League of Nations directed that an election be held in Palestine as soon as arrangements could be made to hold an election, to create the Government of Palestine. The League of Nations also directed that the population of Palestine decide for themselves the country they wished to act as Palestine's "temporary administrator," under which the election to create the Government of Palestine was to be conducted, as provided in Article XXII of the League of Nations Covenant for an election.

In steps taken to select a country to act as "temporary administrator" of Palestine, eighty-two percent (82%) of Palestine's total population asked for the United States to act as Palestine's temporary administrator. The choice was made when there were in Palestine 700,000 Christians and Moslems, and 50,000 Zionists, of whom about one-half were non-Zionist and anti-Zionist, long-resident orthodox religious pilgrims.

Advised of that choice, Great Britain and Zionists immediately took steps to prevent the United States from acting as Palestine's temporary administrator. Great Britain and Zionists saw the danger, that Great Britain would be unable to turn over Palestine to Zionists for their future Zionist sovereign state, if the United States acted as Palestine's temporary administrator, and promptly held the election to create the Government of Palestine, as then required.

If the United States held the election promptly, to elect the Government of Palestine, the Government of Palestine created by that election would surely not be a Zionist sovereign state. With a Palestine population at that time of 700,000 Christians and Moslems, and 50,000 Zionists, non-Zionists and anti-Zionists, the elected Government of Palestine could not possibly become the future Zionist sovereign state.

To insure against any possibility that the United States might act as Palestine's temporary administrator, Great Britain immediately stationed 200,000 British troops in Palestine, to act as a shield behind which Great Britain planned to transplant the necessary number of Zionists into Palestine from eastern Europe, to create a Zionist majority in Palestine's population as quickly as possible, and Great Britain also immediately flew Herbert Samuel from London to Palestine, announcing to the world upon Herbert Samuel's arrival in Palestine, that Great Britain had designated Herbert Samuel as Palestine's High Commissioner, and that Great Britain would thereafter act as "temporary administrator" of Palestine, under Article XXII of the League of Nations Covenant. This was bad news to Palestine's population, to the United States and to members of the League of Nations.

The opposition by Palestine's 700,000 Christians and Moslems made little difference to Great Britain or to Zionists. The King-Crane Report, on Great Britain's double-crossing of United States, strongly condemned Great Britain and Zionists for their interference in Palestine's affairs. President Wilson had ordered the King-Crane investigating committee to report to him in person, after visiting Palestine to obtain the facts first-hand for him. The King-Crane Report was withheld from President Wilson, who died several years later without ever having seen the King-Crane Report, so successfully kept secret.

If the recommendations made in the King-Crane Report had been implemented, the election to create the Government of Palestine would have been promptly held, also honorably conducted, under United States supervision, without complications.

The stories created by propagandists telling about German soldiers promiscuously shooting Red Cross nurses, and German soldiers spearing infants on their bayonets as a pleasant pastime, were all proven to be untrue. Propagandists concocted the most fantastic lies about atrocities never committed by German soldiers, to inflame the public in the United States against Germans, and to provoke the United States thus into declaring war against Germany.

In the United States, President Wilson was desperate to find a pretext to enter World War I as Great Britain's ally. President Wilson found the pretext in the 1917 story of the "sinking" of the Sussex in mid-channel, after a long search for a pretext.

With the story of the "sinking" of the Sussex, President Wilson went to Congress for a declaration of war against Germany. After the declaration of war against Germany, our allies discovered the Sussex had not been "sunk," nor that United States "lives had been lost," as had been reported.

During the twenty-eight years between 1920 and 1948, when Great Britain was in Palestine, as "temporary administrator," officially as the Mandate Government in Palestine, under Article XXII of the League of Nations Covenant, no election was held by Great Britain to create the Government of Palestine. However, during those twenty-eight years, between 1920 and 1948, Great Britain transplanted into Palestine 600,000 Zionists from eastern Europe, behind a shield of 200,000 British troops, stationed in Palestine for that purpose, a demand by Zionists upon Great Britain.

During the twenty-eight years between 1920 and 1948, Palestine's Christian and Moslem population increased from 700,000 in 1920 to 1,350,000 in 1948. In the same twenty-eight years, Palestine's Zionist population increased from 50,000 in 1920 to 650,000 in 1948, which included the 600,000 Zionists transplanted by Great Britain into Palestine from eastern Europe between 1920 and 1948, for their Zionist majority.

In 1946 Great Britain had abandoned all hope of ever being able to create a Zionist majority in Palestine's population. Great Britain could not very well hand over Palestine to Zionists, for their future Zionist sovereign state, with Palestine's 1,350,000 Christian and Moslem population, and with Palestine's 650,000 Zionist population. The outlook in 1946 was not very encouraging, for the creation by Great Britain anon of a Zionist majority in Palestine's population.

In 1946 Great Britain decided to dump the responsibility for creating the Government of Palestine into United Nations lap. United Nations went through the motions of studying the problem in Palestine. United Nations sent a ten-man committee to Palestine to study the problem on the ground, but their ten-man committee had in it nine Zionist stooges. After ten days in Palestine, they returned bringing with them a one-hundred and sixty-eight page report, which took seventy Zionist experts three years time to compile and complete.

Thereafter, on November 24, 1947 United Nations General Assembly passed a resolution, with a rigged majority, in the positively most crooked election ever held anywhere in the world. That November 29, 1947 United Nations General Assembly resolution "recommended" the one-hundred and sixty-eight page report as the basis for the long-delayed Government of Palestine.

United Nations General Assembly's resolution "recommended" a government for Palestine, under a plan wherein Palestine's 1,350,000 Christians and Moslems, owning ninety-six percent (96%) of Palestine, were to cede fifty percent (50%) sovereignty in Palestine to Palestine's 650,000 transplanted Zionists, in 1946 owning only four percent (4%) of Palestine. Palestine's

1,350,000 Christians and Moslems rejected United Nations unjust "recommendation" for their future Government of Palestine.

The Zionist-dominated world-wide media for mass communication, publicized United Nations November 29, 1947 resolution as United Nations "Palestine Partition Plan." The world was given to understand by the Zionists that Palestine's 1,350,000 Christians and Moslems refused to implement United Nations "Palestine Partition Plan," justifying Zionists 1948 unilateral action.

United Nations Charter does not authorize the United Nations General Assembly, United Nations Security Council, or any other United Nations body, to "partition" a sovereign state for any reason, which is not fully understood in the United States.

A United Nations "Palestine Partition Plan" really never existed, except in the imaginations of Zionist propagandists. It was a fraud upon the world for Zionist propagandists to describe United Nations General Assembly November 29, 1947 resolution, only "recommending" a plan for a government in Palestine, as a compulsory United Nations "Palestine Partition Plan."

United Nations Charter, Article 11, is the article in United Nations Charter, limiting United Nations to "recommendations."

"The General Assembly may discuss any questions relating to the maintenance of international peace and security brought before it by any Member of the United Nations, AND MAY MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS WITH REGARD TO ANY SUCH QUESTIONS TO THE STATE OR STATES CONCERNED OR TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL OR TO BOTH."

Great Britain had many irons in the fire in Palestine in 1916. Great Britain was obligated to turn over Palestine to Zionists for their future Zionist sovereign state, under the notorious 1916 London Agreement, after termination of World War I. Great Britain could never escape that obligation to Zionists, with Lord Rothschild, world's No. 1 Zionist, ruler of the rulers of Great Britain, Zionist uncrowned king.

Great Britain had other reasons also for implementing the notorious 1916 London Agreement. The Zionist hierarchy had assured Great Britain that the future Zionist sovereign state in Palestine would arrange to become a member of the British Empire as soon as the political dust settled, on the Zionist sovereign state in Palestine.

Great Britain planned to cut a canal through the future Zionist sovereign state, connecting the Mediterranean with the Red Sea, from Gaza to the Gulf of Aquaba, that empties into the Red Sea, thus providing Great Britain with a canal in perpetuity, passing through British territory, something Great Britain badly needed, as much then as now, so vital to Great Britain's survival.

Great Britain was well aware the Suez Canal concession, given deLesseps by Egypt in 1856, would finally end in ninety-nine years, when the Suez Canal would revert to Egypt. That day would be a black day for Great Britain. Great Britain planned in 1916 to construct a modern two-lane two-way canal from Gaza to the Gulf of Aquaba, that would forever end Great Britain's dependence upon the one-hundred year old one-lane one-way Suez Canal, the weakest link in Great Britain's vulnerable lifeline.

Great Britain also badly needed a member of the British Empire in the heart of the Middle East oil area. Oil was rapidly replacing coal for fuel in Great Britain's navy and merchant marine, and Great Britain's colonies could not provide Great Britain with oil. Great Britain planned in 1916 that the future Zionist sovereign state in Palestine would provide Great Britain with a member of the British Empire in the heart of the Middle East's big oil reserves.

Great Britain also planned in 1916 to control the mineral wealth of the Dead Sea in Palestine. The British Colonial Office appraised the value of the mineral wealth of the Dead Sea at Six Trillion Dollars, or at Six-thousand Billion Dollars, ($6,000,000,000,000.), actually billions of tons of potash, and five other important industrial minerals. By comparison, the national debt of the United States in 1965 is a mere Three-hundred and Twenty-five Billion Dollars ($325,000,000,000), one twentieth.

By coincidence, the family of Herbert Samuel, Palestine's newly appointed High Commissioner, happened to control Shell Oil Company, and were the largest stockholders in Imperial Chemical Industries of England, the world's largest chemical empire, with world-wide political ramifications, and eyes on the Dead Sea minerals.

On the very first day after Herbert Samuel's arrival in Palestine, he granted Palestine Potash Company, Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Imperial Chemical Industries of England, the concession to extract the minerals from the Dead Sea, in spite of the fact he knew there was already an existing concession for the Dead Sea, then in existence for twenty years. That was a good first day's work for one of the world's most important Zionists, second only in importance to Lord Rothschild, their No. 1 Zionist, and the uncrowned ruler of rulers.

As an illustration closer to home of what took place in Palestine between 1920 and 1948, assume that between 1920 and 1948 the Soviet Union illegally transplanted 4,000,000 unwanted and unwelcome penniless Mexicans into the State of Texas, with the cooperation of corrupt United States immigration officers stationed on the Mexican border to implement that conspiracy.

Assume the 8,000,000 population of the State of Texas was totally disarmed by State of Texas authorities, to eliminate the possibility of armed opposition by Texans to the influx into the State of Texas of unwanted and unwelcome penniless Mexicans, each secretly armed upon arrival.

Assume the 4,000,000 unwanted and unwelcome penniless Mexicans, transplanted into the State of Texas, were secretly armed with the world's most modern weapons, free of charge to them, at a cost to the Soviet Union of Two-billion Dollars ($2,000,000,000.), to be used against Texans.

Assume to avert a civil war between the 8,000,000 native Texans and the 4,000,000 transplanted Mexicans, United Nations "recommended" a plan under which the 8,000,000 native Texans, owning ninety-six percent (96%) of the State of Texas, were to cede sovereignty over fifty percent (50%) of the State of Texas to the 4,000,000 transplanted Mexicans, then owning four percent (4%) of their State of Texas.

Assume the 8,000,000 native Texans rejected United Nations proposed plan, and assume the 4,000,000 heavily armed Mexicans thereupon uprooted the disarmed and defenseless 8,000,000 native Texans from their homes, and expelled them from the State of Texas, without provocation or justification, with only the clothes on their backs, to survive in Arizona desert camps.

Assume the 4,000,000 transplanted Mexicans then "proclaimed" their armed uprising in the State of Texas the "Republic of the Alamo," misrepresenting themselves.

Assume the Soviet Union "recognized" the "Republic of the Alamo," one minute after it was "proclaimed," and many Soviet Union satellites quickly followed the Soviet Union, all then exchanging ambassadors.

Assume United Nations then admitted the "Republic of the Alamo" as a member of United Nations, on promises never kept.

Can any sane person assume that the 8,000,000 Texans, uprooted from their homes and expelled from the State of Texas, would accept the "Republic of the Alamo" as a "fait accompli," and go in search of new homes in which to settle in Nevada, Utah or Nebraska, and abandon all their worldly goods to those Mexicans?

Can any sane person assume that the 175,000,000 other persons in the United States would do nothing to help 8,000,000 native Texans regain possession again of their stolen homes in the State of Texas?

The United States lost the confidence, the respect and the friendship of the world on May 15, 1948, when President Truman "recognized" the "kangaroo" regime of an armed uprising in Palestine, by 650,000 Zionists usurpers transplanted into Palestine, one minute after it was "proclaimed."

How crooked or how crazy must a government be to "recognize" as a sovereign state, the "kangaroo" regime of the armed uprising by hostile aliens, and not recognize the governments of East Germany, North Korea and the mainland of China?

It is true that the governments of East Germany, North Korea and the mainland of China were imposed upon the populations of East Germany, North Korea and mainland of China by foreign interference.

It is also true that the "government" in Palestine was imposed by Zionists on the entire population of Palestine by foreign interference, from Zionist ruled countries.

In the case of East Germany, North Korea and mainland of China, the governments imposed upon their populations in those countries, were imposed upon the indigenous populations, upon populations which had inhabited those areas for thousands of years before foreign interference.

In the case of Palestine, the Zionists transplanted into Palestine uprooted the indigenous population from their homes, and expelled them from their ancestral homeland, by cruel torture and massacres.

In the Congo, the United States spent hundreds of millions of dollars fighting secession by Katanga, when that province seceded from the Congo, "proclaiming" Katanga an independent sovereign state, but was soon forced to rejoin the Congo.

But what happened in Palestine? United States supplied billions of dollars, directly and via Germany, to finance the existence of a Zionist "kangaroo" regime, illegally in occupation of eighty percent (80%) of Palestine, political pay-off to Zionists for support in four election campaigns.
